CIRCULAR

Sub : Regarding Fees for Supplementary examinations, semester-1.

It is brought to the information of all the students in the University that the supplementary examinations – both theory and practical – will be held in those subjects which were offered in the 1st semester 2015-16 for the students of 1st year degree programmes. Students desirous of appearing in the supplementary examination shall have to pay a fee of

Rs. 300/- per subject for theory examination and

Rs. 250/- per subject for practical examination.

However, those students who had paid the semester examination fees during 1st semester but could not appear in the ESE (Theory)/ESE (Practical) for reasons of obtaining F1, F2, F3 and F4 in a particular subject need not pay the supplementary examination fees.

The students of 1st semester degree programme are further informed that the supplementary examinations in subjects which were offered in the 1st semester 2015-16 are going to be held from May 02, 2016 onwards. Students desirous of appearing in the supplementary examinations in these subjects may pay the supplementary examination fees as given above on or before Apr 15, 2016 at the respective college.
