Editorial

The Month of September saw many Curricular, Co-curricular & Extra Curricular activities happening in the faculty of Homoeopathy. As per the schedule many webinars and seminars were organised and our faculties were called as resource person in National CME& Faculties were called to share their views on current scenario of Homoeopathy on television(Vande Gujarat Channel-2)

. CEP cell of Parul University organised Certificate program in advance learning of Cardiology in Homoeopathy in collaboration with faculty of Homoeopathy.

Ayush Ministry initiated “Azadi ka amrut Mahotsav” was well participated by organising various school programs and many medical camps under the AKAM head. Faculties also received recognitions as awards and appreciation certificates for their untiring efforts in NSS & TEC by the University.

Ganapati festivities and Teacher's day celebration kept the enthusiasm among students and teachers.
