Report

Objective:

1. Conduct detailed health screenings for all female residents of Matrumandir Old Age Home to assess their physical health conditions.
2. Promote mental well-being through discussions and activities that highlight the significance of maintaining good mental health.
3. This visit is part of the curriculum for 4th BHMS students under the Community Medicine department, integrating practical experience with theoretical knowledge.
4. Foster positive interactions between students and elderly residents through engaging activities.
5. Distribute snacks and personal care items to enhance the comfort and happiness of the residents.

Outcome:

1. Residents benefit from thorough health check-ups and appropriate medical interventions, leading to better management of existing health conditions and improved overall physical health.
2. The emphasis on mental health awareness and the positive interactions with students contribute to improved mental well-being among the residents.
3. Activities such as playing games and personal interactions help uplift the residents' spirits, promoting a sense of joy and emotional support.
4. The distribution of snacks and personal care items, along with the compassionate engagement of students, enhances the quality of life for the elderly residents.

Subject – Gratitude for Organizing the Health Check-Up Camp at Matrumandir Old Age Home

Respected Sir/Madam,

On behalf of Matrumandir Old Age Home, I would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to Sainath Hospital and Ahmedabad Homoeopathic Medical College for organizing Old age home visit and the Physical health check-up camp at our premises on September 4, 2024. The visit by your esteemed faculty, students, interns, and MD students was immensely appreciated by all of us here.

The comprehensive health screenings, consultations and homoeopathic medicines provided were of great benefit to our female residents. The focus on both physical and mental health was especially appreciated by our female residents. Additionally, the distribution of snacks and personal care items, along with the engaging activities where students played with the residents, significantly contributed to their happiness and well-being.

Thank you for your dedication to community health.
