

REPORT OF EDUCATIONAL VISIT:

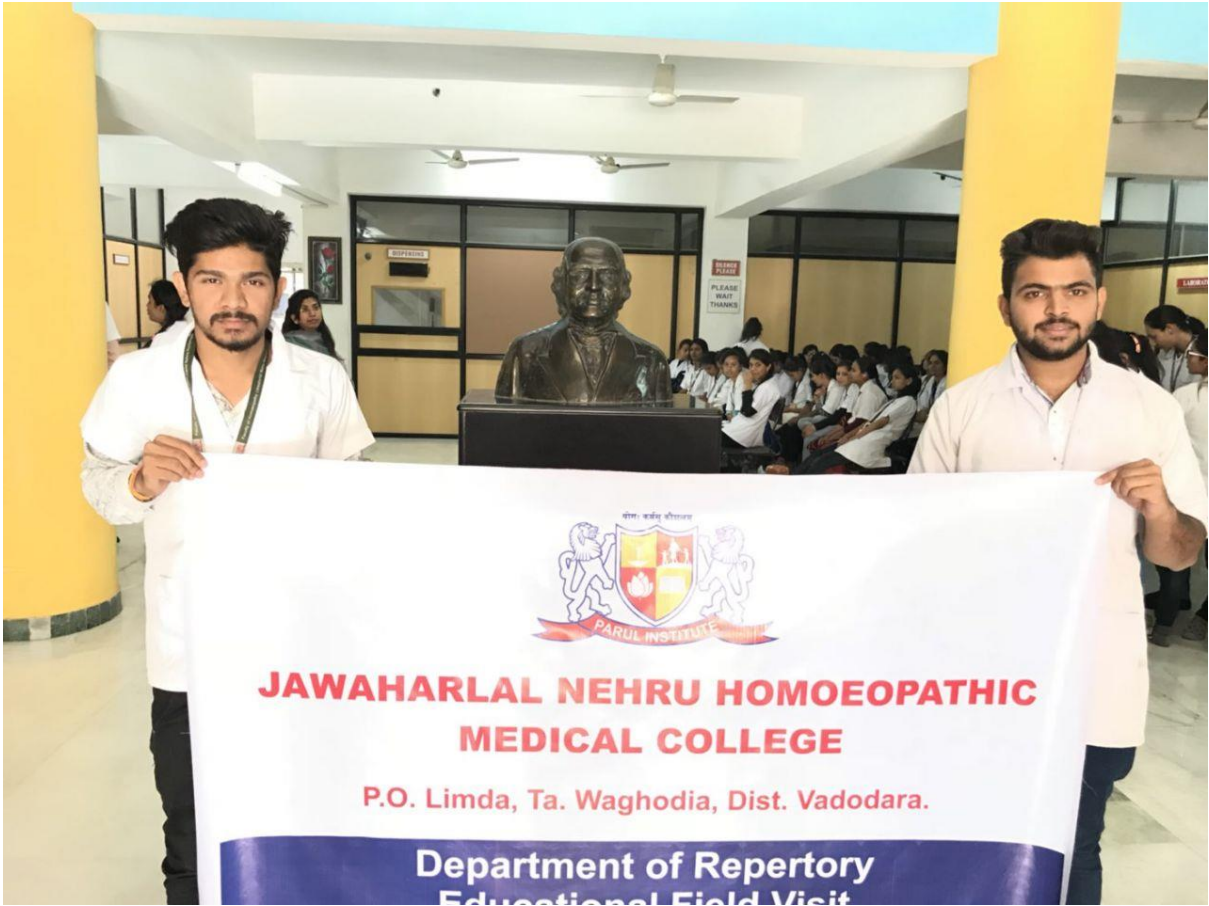

It has been a great privilege for the IV B.H.M.S. and post-graduation students along with the departmental faculty to have visited the legend Dr. Ramanlal P. Patel (born on 1st August 1926) at his 'Dr. R.P. Patel Institute of Homoeopathy for Research and Education in Homoeopathy', Hahnemann house, Meissen, Subhanpura, Vadodara; on 2018-01-02.

Dr. R. P. Patel has numerous feathers added to his cap which can't be described in limited words and still counting for all his passion, quest, efforts and contributions in the field of Homoeopathy from his very young age, for which he has travelled round the world several times, collected various manuscripts, pictures, authored and published several books, undertaken several research works, homoeopathic software, and even at this ripe old age develops them along with his heavy and successful practice based on the principles of Homoeopathy specializing in the cases of cancer.

The museum displayed several manuscripts; Kent's repertory on punched cards; charts and diagrams on auto-visual homoeopathic repertory, LM potencies; maps showing the status of Homoeopathy around the world; list of Homoeopathic colleges in India; specimens supplied by Dr. W. Schwabe Pvt. Ltd; many pictures related to Dr. R.P. Patel's works, international collection of awards and presentations, master Hahnemann through ages, places where he dwelled, his hand written repertory, appliances/ belongings, medicine boxes, articles and many more.

Few of our lucky students were gifted with Homoeopathic books while we could gift sir with a banner of testimonials on Homoeopathy by eminent personalities/ celebrities from different fields.
