Objective:

- To contribute towards environmental conservation by increasing green cover, reducing carbon footprint, and improving air quality.
- To promote awareness and responsibility among students regarding the importance of trees in maintaining ecological balance and mitigating climate change.
- To enhance the aesthetic and health-friendly environment of the campus by creating green spaces that support biodiversity and provide shade, clean air, and a positive learning atmosphere.

Activity:

Department of Community Medicine organized the Tree Plantation Drive on World Environment Day on 5th June 2025 (Thursday) at 11:00 AM at the PIHR premises with the aim of fostering environmental sustainability and promoting awareness among students. The activity was carried out with the enthusiastic participation of faculty, staff, and students.

The program commenced at 11:00 AM with short awareness speech by principal sir Dr. Ankur Desai. He, then planted a few medicinal plants like Tulsi, hibiscus etc., at 11:25 AM.

Then the gardener gave basic information about how to take care of the trees and the household plants. This was followed by plantation by Dr. Pranali Mistry and then by students of 4th BHMS.

The event created a sensitive and thought-provoking environment, raising awareness about Environmental issues and the importance of collective responsibility in Climate change and sustaining our environment.

Glimpses of activity

Outcome:

- More than 15 saplings were successfully planted, contributing to the long-term green cover of the campus.
- Students gained practical exposure to environmental conservation and developed a sense of responsibility towards protecting nature.
- Awareness about the linkage between plantation, climate action, and sustainable development was reinforced among participants.
- The drive improved the overall ambience of the campus, creating a cleaner, healthier, and eco-friendly environment.
