1. Youth Advisory Group Appointments

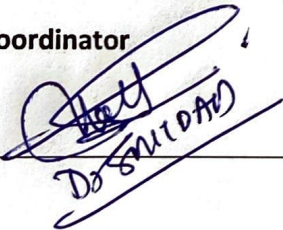

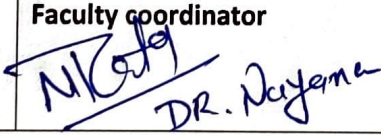

On 12 August 2025, the UN Secretary-General announced the appointment of 14 young leaders to the third cohort of his Youth Advisory Group—a body meant to ensure young people have a direct line to high-level decision-making within the UN.

2. Continuous Youth Engagement via UN Country Teams

The United Nations Office to the African Union (UNOAU) highlighted a significant outcome: a call to hold regular youth forums, ensuring continuous dialogue with young people rather than one-off engagements

3. Global Theme and Focus: Local Youth Actions for the SDGs

- Theme: “Local Youth Actions for the SDGs and Beyond.” This underscored the idea that youth-driven initiatives at the community level are critical to making real progress toward the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)
- The celebrations included high-profile events in Nairobi, Kenya, hosted with UN-Habitat, UN DESA, and the Commonwealth Secretariat, spotlighting local youth actions globally.
