REPORT OF FREE HOMOEOPATHIC MEGA CAMP

Objective: The Parul Institute of Homoeopathy and Research Hospital (PIHRH), committed to the welfare of the community, particularly in remote and rural areas, successfully conducted a Homoeopathic Medical Health Camp on 10th December 2024 in collaboration with Shraddha Saburi Charitable Trust, Gorwa. The camp took place at Mahadev Mandir, Panchvati, Gorwa, Vadodara, Gujarat, from 10:30 AM to 1:30 PM.

The event was led by Dr. Kamal Patidar, Homoeopathic Consultant, supported by Dr. Manisha Kanjaria, Dr. Almas (PG Scholar), interns from PIHRH, Ms. Nisha Tadvi (Nursing Staff), and Mr. Prashant Takane (PRO), with prior approval from Mr. Bhavinbhai Pandya, Chairman of the Trust.

During the camp, a thorough health check-up was conducted for attendees, and Homoeopathic medicines were distributed to address various health concerns. The camp saw a positive turnout, with around 64 individuals benefiting from the services provided. The initiative successfully served the community, furthering PIHRH's mission of accessible healthcare for all.
