

On the occasion of World Cancer day, 4-2-21, the students had actively participated and drawn various posters to increase awareness against cancer.

There were 85 participants drawn posters and submitted. There were many inspiring thoughts in them.