

Natural Berthing centre

Parul Institute of Nursing Organized expert Talk on “Natural Berthing Centre” By Dr. Usha Ukande, Principal Choitram College of Nursing, Indore on date 20th march 2017. Birth may be a matter of moment but it is a unique one. By honouring & embracing all the many possible variations that birth encompasses, we at ‘SWA’ help take the fear out of the birth ...In this way, every birth is a natural birth: each of us is part of nature, not separate from it, and nature is always stunning in its variety. Your birth, then, is part of the natural world, however it unfolds.” Madam had discussed about natural berthing centre philosophy and aims centre.
