1st International Online Research Methodology Workshop in Humanities and Social Sciences

13th December 2021 to 24th December 2021

The growing importance of research in Humanities and Social Science and methodological, theoretical, financial, ethical, and legal challenges posed to the researchers day by day hampers both research and scholarship in the various fields. The present International Workshop aims to build the researcher's capacity to overcome these challenges in research. The Workshop provides a comprehensive understanding of the fundamentals of research, methods, data collection and evaluation, tools, and techniques, and new interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary approaches in Humanities and Social Sciences. It also aims to introduce the basics of research, concepts, approaches, academic writing, research design, citation styles, research ethics, and integrity, etc. The postgraduate students, research scholars, and early career faculty members who are planning to take up research or in the mid of their research can find this Workshop useful. The distinguished resource persons from various fields in humanities and social sciences from India and abroad will share their experiences and suggest how to overcome the challenges in research. Participants will be acquainted with the theoretical and practical premises of empiricism in the domain of research in the discipline of Humanities/Social Science and allied disciplines. The key topics to be covered during these two weeks are as mentioned below:

- Multidisciplinary and Interdisciplinary Research
