

Guidelines for PhD Synopsis presentation

1. The area of research should be in tune with the thrust areas of Parul University, CCRAS, ICMR, CSIR and other government bodies related to field of Ayurved education and research.
2. The assessment parameters/ scales to be used should be validated and standardized as per international standards.
3. The sample size calculations should be according to prevalence rate. It should be decided by consulting with statistician.
4. The synopsis should contain following annexure (if applicable) - Case Report Form, Informed Consent Form, Standard Operating Procedure (SoP).
5. Ph.D. scholars are requested to contact respective supervisors well in advance.
6. The Power Point Presentation should contain title, research question, need of the study, expected outcome, methodology, pilot study if any and any other related information.
7. PowerPoint Presentation should be precise & should not be more than 4 slides.
8. The scholars need to maintain a research diary to record:
 - a) Communication with research guide.
 - b) The progress of the doctoral research work done.
 - c) Research activities like publications, presentations done.