Brief Report

Christmas is celebrated to remember the birth of Jesus Christ, who Christians believe is the son of God. Christmas celebrations include spending time with the family, decorating the entire house, inside and out and shopping for friends and relatives. The children love to see each other and spend the day playing games and sharing their new gifts and toys that Santa Claus brought for each of them. Everyone feels fortunate to have their family at Christmas time.

Christmas is about GIVING, not receiving. Our emphasis should be on how we can bless others with what we have been given. With this objective SRC in collaboration with Parul Institute of Social Work has organized Christmas celebration with children of construction workers staying at construction site of PU campus

The programme was started at 9.30 am. The 20 children of construction workers were escorted from their residence by the students of FSW to the venue. In this pandemic situation it is needed to wear a mask to protect corona virus. We have given masks to protect corona virus and sanitize their hands by sanitizer.

The procession has been organized from FSW to admin building for wishing the Christmas to all officials of university with joy and singing the charismas songs. We reached to admin building and there we distributed gifts to all children with the hands of Dr. Manish Pandya, Registrar of Parul University.

After the procession we had Christmas party at FSW. Christmas cake was cut by Dr. Satish Bodla, In charge Dean of faculty of social work and children. Different cultural activities were organized by the students of FSW also garba was played by faculty members and students. The children have enjoyed a lot. At last we distributed snacks to all children. Then children were taken back to their home
