

PARUL UNIVERSITY
MASTERS IN SOCIAL WORK (MSW)
Semester 2: Compulsory

Subject Name: Methods of social Case work
Subject Code: 10201151

Course Objective:

At the end of the subject students will be able to

- To know the methods and philosophy of case work in social work
- To study concept for understanding individual behavior and dynamics
- To study components of case work
- To understand case work skills and process

This subject has a total weight age of 3 credits and 36 sessions wherein each session will be of 55 minutes.

Contents:

Module	Contents	Sessions	Weightage	Suggested teaching methodology
I:	Method and philosophy: place of social case work in social work practices, evolution of case work as a method in other countries and india. Defining and explaining social case work as a method of helping individuals and families.	7.00	20%	Lectures
II:	Concept for understanding individual behavior and dynamics: concept of person in situation, concept of stress, concept of psycho social functioning, concept of role	7.00	20%	Lectures
III:	Components of case work: psycho social problems, its genesis and characteristics, client: understanding of a person with a problem, agency: primary and secondary setting, importance of the practice	11.00	30%	Lectures

	through an agency
IV:	Case work skills: worker client relationship, characteristics, principles and its application in indian setting, interviewing: verbal and non-verbal communication	7.00	20%	Lectures
V:	Case work process: recording	4.00	10%	Lectures& Exercises

List Of Books:

Sr. No	Author	Name Of The Book	Publisher Edition
1.	Hollis, Florence 1966	Case Work: A Psychological Therapy	New York, Ramlon House
2.	Upadhyay, R	Social Casework	Rawat Publications

2. Subject name: Methods of social group work

Subject code: 10201152

Course objective:

At the end of the subject students will be able to:

- To understand the concept of group and to be able to see one's own self as a member of several groups
- Appreciate the importance of group in the life of an individual
- Gain knowledge about group formation and use of variety of group approaches

This subject has a total weight age of 3 credits and 36 sessions wherein each session will be of 55 minutes.

Contents:

Module	Contents	Sessions	Weightage	Suggested teaching methodology
I:	Group process : basic social processes, associative and dissociative, importance of group processes, typical patterns, worker skill in identifying and understanding process.	5.00	15%	Lecture & exercise
II:	Group dynamics : tasks roles, maintenance roles, leadership, isolation, decision making, conflicts and communication	9.00	25%	Lecture & exercise
III:	Models of small group behavior : sociometric analysis, bales system- ipa interactional process	7.00	20%	Lecture & exercise
IV:	Worker roles : skills and facilitation, knowledge of skills and techniques for effective work with groups	9.00	25%	Lecture & exercise
V:	Recording : recording in group work, importance of recording in social group work, principles of recording, types of recording	6.00	15%	Lecture & exercise

List of books:

Sr. No	Author	Name of the book	Publisher edition
1.	Misra, P	Social group work : theory and practice	New royal
2.	Konopka Gisela, 1954	Group work in the institution, a modern challenge	New york: white side inc & william morow and co.

3. Subject name: community organization

Subject code: 10201153

Course objective:

At the end of the subject students will be able to:

- Enhance the skill as community organizer
- Develop an attitude and skill for participatory and to work as professional

This subject has a total weight age of 3 credits and 36 sessions wherein each session will be of 55 minutes.

Contents:

MODULE	Contents	Sessions	Weightage	Suggested teaching methodology
I:	Community organization : practices, areas and level of community, organizational practice, approaches of community organization	6.00	15%	Lectures & video

II:	Organization for service and power: concept of voluntary organizations, starting and developing voluntary organizations, motivation and training for voluntary work	7.00	20%	Lectures
III:	Empowerment: concept of empowerment, barriers to process of empowerment, leadership, origin, types definitions and characteristics of leadership	7.00	20%	Lectures & video
IV:	Modern and strategies of community organization: locality development model, social planning model, social action model	7.00	20%	Lectures & video
V:	People's participation: concept, community participation, definition, purpose, process of participative management, techniques of people participation, resources development	9.00	25%	Lectures & video

List of books:

Sr. No	Author	Name Of The Book	Publisher Edition
1.	S L Goyal And Rajnish S, 2003	Panchayati Raj In India, Theories And Practices	Deep & Deep Publications, New Delhi
2.	Tripathi N S 2007	Dynamics Of Rural Development	Discovery Publication House, New Delhi

4. Subject name: psychopathology

Subject code: 10201154

At the end of the subject students will be able to:

Course objective:

- To understand and access abnormal behavior and learn to contribute in their treatment.
- To be sensitive to the problems of such individuals and their families and find the solutions.
- To know about various types of abnormal behavior, their causes, symptoms, prognosis and treatment of individuals having psychiatric problems.
- To learn new vocabulary and terminology used in mental health field by professionals.

This subject has a total weight age of 3 credits and 36 sessions wherein each session will be of 55 minutes.

Contents:

Module	Contents	Sessions	Weightage	Suggested teaching methodology
I:	Normal and abnormal behavior : concepts, definitions, criteria of assessment or abnormal behavior.	6.00	15%	Lectures
II:	Etiology of abnormal behavior : causes of abnormal behavior (genetic, bio-chemical, psychological, socio-cultural and other factors)	7.00	20%	Lectures
III:	Symptomatology : various symptoms of abnormal behavior, general and specific psychiatric assessment/ mental status examination.	7.00	20%	Lectures
IV:	Clarification : abnormal behavior as per D.S.M and I.C.D classification.	7.00	20%	Lectures

V:	Types of abnormal behavior: clinical picture, etiology, diagnosis, treatments and prognosis of anxiety disorder, somatoform disorder, obsessive compulsive disorder, depressive disorder.	9.00	25%	Lectures & exercise
----	--	------	-----	---------------------

List of book:

Sr. No	Author	Name of the book	Publisher Edition
1.	Mane, Purnima & Kety Y.	Mental health in India: issues and concerns	Tiss, Mumbai

5. Subject name: social work research-1

Subject code: 10201155

Course objective:

At the end of the subject students will be able to

- Develop an ability to see the linkages between theory, research, and practices and understand their essential role in enriching one another.
- Develop understanding about various research types, sampling methods, research designs

This subject has a total weight age of 3 credits and 36 sessions wherein each session will be of 55 minutes.

Content:

Module	Contents	Sessions	Weightage	Suggested teaching methodology
UNIT I:	Social work research : definition and scope of social work research, research and social work practices and theory, methodology in social work research, qualitative and quantitative social work research and approaches, ethical issues and principle of research	9.00	25%	Lectures
UNIT II:	Problem formation : criteria for selection of topic, necessity of defining the problem/ techniques involved from conceptualization to operationalization. Importance of relevance specificity, observability and feasibility.	7.00	20%	Lectures
UNIT III:	Research designs : meaning, need, features, importance, concepts relating to research design and types	7.00	20%	Lectures
UNIT IV:	Sampling method : meaning, importance, methods	6.00	15%	Lectures
UNIT V:	Interview schedule : concept, types of interview schedule, relevance	7.00	20%	Lectures & exercise

List of books:

Sr. No	Author	Name of the book	Publisher Edition
1.	C R Kothari	Research methodology	New Age International Publications
2.	Ram Ahuja	Research methodology	Rawat Publications

